

Digitally signed by
Library UTM
Reason: I attest to the accuracy and integrity of this document

UNIVERSITATEA TEHNICĂ A MOLDOVEI
Facultatea Calculatoare, Informatica, si Microelectronica
Catedra Informatica Aplicata

CULTURA ȘI CIVILIZAȚIA ANGLOFONĂ
Îndrumar metodic

Texts for discussion

Chișinău
U.T.M.
2010

CULTURA ȘI CIVILIZAȚIA ANGLOFONĂ. Îndrumar metodic. Texts for discussion is designed for upper -intermediate and advanced students who are studying at speciality Applied Informatics. It aims at helping students to learn about Britain, its traditions and everyday life. The exercises are intended for further improving students' abilities to understand the original texts and express their ideas. It can also be used either under the guidance of a teacher or by interested learners on their own.

Author: Maria Anischievici

Chief editor: Stela Tarîța

Reviewer: senior lecturer Lily Veleșcu

© U.T.M., 2010

Contents

1. What is Britain?	3
2. British unity in diversity	6
3. Cultural diversity and cultural conflict	8
4. Spoken in the UK	11
5. Well-spoken employees wanted	13
6. The English language. English spelling	14
7. W. Shakespeare	15
8. Tourism in UK	19
9. Food eating and drinking habits	20
10. Burger Kings march on UK stomachs	21
11. Why do many Scots die for fry-ups	22
12. Sports	24
13. Politics	27
14. The law. the legal system	30
15. The police	32
16. Britain and the world. Commonwealth	33
17. Multicultural Britain	35
18. Religion in a multi-ethnic society	35
19. Britain and Europe	37
20. Election 2010. UK's new Prime Minister	38
21. Conservatism in Great Britain	47
Bibliography	50

Bibliography

Britain Explored, Paul Harley, Rhodi Jones, Longnam. 2002
What's it like, Joanne Collie & Alex Martin, CUP, 2000
Britain: An Official Handbook, annual publication, HMSO, London
The Economist, weekly magazine, London
The Guardian, daily newspaper, London
The Observer, weekly newspaper
<http://wikipedia.org/wiki> www.bbc.com